FIGHT AT FRANKFORT

Dunlap-Kaufman Contest Has Been Postponed.

Numerous Small Bills Advanced in the House-Machaoles' Lien Law Changed by the Senate -Two Hallots Taken For Unified States Senator Williamt Result. Other Kentucky State News, Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 28.—The house members seemed cool and collected when they met yesterday. Néarly every member was in his seat. The bill allowing the late Isaac Wilson's heirs to draw his per diem up to the time his successor took his seat was improperly passed the other day, and was regularly and finally passed.

Mayor Todd had evidently been pushing his wharfmaster bill. The committee on municipalities reported it for printing and a second reading.

There was nothing else done until the reading of the majority and minority reports in the Dunlap-Kaufman contest began. The reading of the two reports required nearly an hour's time. When the reading was done Mr. Howard moved to fix the reports as a special order immediately after the determination of the Werner-Tompkins contest.
His motion earried, and this disposed of all excitement for the day.

Regular committee reports were again in order, and numerous small bills were ordered to their second reading.

Mr. Dodson's bill, proposing to redistrict the city of Louisville, was given its second reading.

The number of bills reported from committees and advanced was unusually large.

The first final legislation reached by the senate vesterday was the house bill making all tollgates free, but was cut off by the first reading of numerous bills

Senator McCord followed, advocating the passage of the measure. The bill was finally defeated by a vote of 26

There was no delay about getting to BROOKLYN, Feb. 28.—Two little girls the result of the three days' debate in work in the joint session. The rollcall lost their lives and two men were interested to the house on the Van Horn-Tarsney mans voted for D. G. Colson. Chambers was paired. The sound money Democrats voted for Carlisle. The 32d ballot resulted: Hunter, 62; Blackburn, 62; scattering, 10. Necessary to a choice

When the usual motion to adjourn was made Dr. James and Mr. Barnett called for yeas and mays. This was taken to mean that they either wanted another ballot or wanted to see if Poor would still vote with them. They were fooled. Mr. Bronston led several Democrats who said they wanted to accommodate the gentleman from Muhleuburg, and voted no. Many Democrats voted against adjournment, and there was the wildest sort of cheering when Senator Ogilvie joined with them and also voted against adjournment. The Republicans immediately began to vote for the adjournment, but there were so many changes that the motion to adjourn was voted down by an overwhelming vote. The only thing in order was the 33d ballot. There were some insignificant changes in the complimentary vote.

The ballot resulted as did the 32d. At the conclusion of the second ballot everybody was ready to adjourn, when Senator Ogilvie arose and moved that a third ballot be taken. The Democrats cheered as the sick man took his seat, the Republicans looked more surprised than ever. The session proceeded to the third ballot, but before it was completed the motion to adjourn was again put, and this time it carried.

MIDDLETOWN, Conn., Feb. 28.-In the little town of Cobalt, a few miles distant, Timothy Parmlee, 76 years of age, was found dead yesterday on the floor MADE A SPECIAL ORDER OF, of the kitchen in his home. Mr. Parmlee lived alone, his wife having left him several years ago. For some time he had been in feeble health and Wednesday evening he sent for Dr. C. W. Lawson.

The physician was unable to visit him until yesterday morning. Upon arriving at the house the doctor's knock met with no response, and thinking that the old man might be helpless, he opened the door, which was not fastened. In the kitchen lay the old man, who had apparently been dead for several honrs. His head was horribly battered. The skull was broken in three places, the nose was broken and the face, head and body were covered with bruises, ents and contusions. Near by, in a pool of blood, was found a flatiron covered with blood.

It is thought that the deed was committed by burglars. No money was found on the old man's body, and his watch and chain were gone. There were also evidences of a struggle. The dead man had never borne the reputation of being wealthy, but he always carried a good sum of money on his person. There is no clew to the mur-

BRIGHTER FOR THE INSURGENTS.

Onthurst of Eloquence in the Semile on The Subject. The Same Enthushesin Prevulled in the House When the Cubun Subject Came Up in That Body Report of the Foreign Allairs Committee.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.-A stirring speech by Mr. Vest in behalf of Cuba was the event of yesterday in the senate. It came mexpectedly, as Mr. Vest seldom announces his speeches or makes preparations. The senate had agreed that the flual vote on the Cuban revolution would be taken at 4 p. m. Friday and the debate was proceeding, Mr. White of California and Mr. Gray of Delaware contending, as a legal proposition, that the United States could not at this time recognize Cuban independence. This aroused Mr. Vest, first for questions of remonstrance and then to one of the bursts of eloquence with which he at times arrives and electrifies the senate. He spoke of Spain as the toothless old woman who had lost one by one, all her litter and was still clinging to this single remaining cub. He pictured Spain as the impotent giant of despair in the pilgrim's progress, gazing on defeat. In impassioned words he made an apothesis to liberty of rare beauty and fervor, adding with ringing emphasis that the Cuban patriots would never, never, never again become the unwilling subjects of Spain.

At the close of the speech Mr. Gray, who opposed Mr. Vest, said that if eloquence could achieve the freedom of Cuba, then the burning words of the Missonri senator would set her free. The debate will be closed by Mr. Sherman. It is considered certain that favorable action will be taken on one of the several resolutions. The only doubt being whether it shall relate to independence or belligerency, and as to the extent of it.

The army appropriation bill, earrying about $23,000,000, was passed during the

Several times during their reading the clerk was interrupted with rounds of ringing applause from the floor and the galleries and the reference to "intervenliam Russell Smith died here yesterday. tion, if necessary," was greeted with

On the conclusion of the reading Mr. Sulzer (Dem., N. Y.) jumped to his feet and asked in view of the great public interest in the question raised by the resolutions that they be made a special order for Tuesday next.

Mr. Meredith (Dem., Va.) suggested that they be passed immediately, a sugrestion that was approved with more cheers.

Mr. Hitt, however, intervened and said the committee had instructed him to press the resolutions at the earliest possible mome.

They recite that in the opinion of congress a state of public war exists in Cuba, the parties to which are entitled to recognition as belligereuts, and between which the United States should maintain an attitude of neutrality; that congress deplores the destruction of property in Unba consequent upon the continuance of the war; that Cuba should have a government of the choice of its people, and that it is the sense of congress that the government of the United States should use its good offices and friendly influence to bring this about; that because of the close proximity of Cuba, the war entails such a loss upon American interests as to demand protection to them, and that this government should intervene, if necessary, and pledging the support of congress to the president in carrying ont these resolutions.

TO FACE A CHARGE OF TREASON Rudolph Spreekels, see of the Sugar King, Goes Back to Honodaln.

Cincygo, Felc 18. A special dispatch from San Prancisco, says: Rudolph Spreckels, youngest son of Chas-Spreckels, sngar king, sailed for Honolulu on the steamer Uity of Pekin. His mission, it is said, is to face President Dole and his cabinet, by whom he is charged with treason against the Hawaiian government. The charge of treason was preferred against Spreckels by Dele after the Hawniian uprising a year ago. He was accused of suppyling the revolutionists with arms and funds. and in one instance giving the ex-queen $10,000 to aid in carrying out her plans to overthrow the republican government and place her niece, Princess Kainlani. on the throne.

Soon after these charges were made a report reached Honoluln that Rudolph Spreckels was en route to the capital on a Pacific line steamship. When the vessel arrived at Honoluln a detail of soldiers went on board and searched for the young millionaire, but failed to find him. He had arranged to make the trip, but altered his intentions on the day the steamer sailed. With a serious charge hanging over his head, it was believed that Spreckels would not return to Hawaiian soil, and his anexpected departure cansed consternation among his friends. He will undoubtedly be arrested upon the arrival of the steamer.

The Priconers' Allorneys Trying to Prevent There Being Taken Across the River WIII Wood Released on Buil-Jackson's Attorney Claims That Pear Drynn Is Allve.

Circinnati, Feb. 28.- In anticipation of the suraignment yesterday of Scott Jackson and Alonzo Walling for the murder of Pearl Bryan, a large crowd gathered about the city half and jail early in the morning. While the authorities considered these assemblages due to sensational curiosity rather than to any consparacy for lynching, yet they took the precaution to evade both clowds.

It was accordingly decided to get the prisoners clandestimely into the commorpleas court before Judge Bookwalter and complete the legal arrangements for the transfer of the prisoners to Sheriff Phaninei of Newport, Ky.

It was evident, however, with the crowds lunging around that the prisoners could not be quietly transferred across the river; and all plans were abandoned. There were people also around both the Newport and the Covington jails waiting to see the prisoners who have became notorious on account of the peculiarly brutal character of the murder charged against them.

It's becoming more apparent every day that the Republicans will be as badly split up as the Democrats over the silver question in the coming Presidential campaign. The free silver craze is not confined to the Democratic party by any means.

The Kentucky Senate concurred in the llonse resolution favoring the election of United States Senators by popular vote. The present dead-lock at Frankfort, and the time and money frittered away in two interesting talks Sunday. consequence thereof, will serve to strengthen the sentiment in favor of the election of Senators by popular vote.

"WE have touched bottom and are now on rising ground," is the sentiment expressed by the National Democratic Congressional Committee, which is now perfecting its organization. Now let's all quit wrangling over the tariff and money question, agree on what will result in the greatest good to the people, and then close ranks and move on to victory next November.

The Wheeling Register in summing up the virtues, or vices, whichever you consider them, of Dr. Hunter, who is throwing clubs at the Senatorial plum, in Kentucky, gets off the following:

The latest accusations brought against Dr. Hunter, the Republican candidate for the Kentucky Senatorship, are that he is a goldling, a free silver crank, a Roman Catholic, a Protestant, a Clan-na-Gael and an A. P. A. Dr. Hunter himself is fairly responsible for these seemingly absurd charges, for he is all things to all men. With him it is anything for Coffee Drinking.

There are some persons who indulge to a considerable excess in ceffee drinking, and many more who go to even greater excess in the use of tea. It has accordingly been contended by some abstainers from these two substances that they are capable of generating a form of inebriety corresponding to etherism. Unquestionably intemperate tea and coffee drinking will give rise to serious mischief. The inordinate consumer of strong tea may become a dyspeptic wreck, a sleepless hypochondriac, with a decrepit nervous system, the victim of a deep, intense melancholy, with, in some cases, a snicidal tendency. The immoderate indulger in ceffee, black and strong, may lose all appetite for healthy foel, cat little, suffer from tremors, acute neuralgic and other pains, excessive thirst, agonizing headnche and a feeling of intolerable dryness and heat. He may become pinehed and emaciated, have a feeble circulation and a constant fear of folling, with a blurred vision, as if looking through light brownish media.

These, however, are the symptoms of ten and coffee poisoning. They bear witness, so to speak, to theine and caffeine intoxication, minus the anæsthesia and paralysis of alcoholic drunkenness. Dr. Kerr, in his practice, has never seen an uncontrollable craving for tea or coffee to which all natural affections and duties were subordinated. He is therefore unable te recognize these phases of excessive drinking as manifestations of narcomania, the disease which is characterized by an overpowering impulse to intoxication at all risks. - New York Sun.

Pope Leo's Reading.

The pope's favorite poets are VirgiI and Dante. He knows a great part of both by heart and takes pleasure in quotlng them. When Father Michael, the apostolic prefect to Erithrea, was taking who accompanied him to Africa, his heliness recited to them with great spirit Dante's canto upon St. Francis.

The pope rends the newspapers, passages of interest being marked for him by readers in order to save him time. He frequently writes letters to the bishops and encyclicals in a polished and Ciceronian style of Latln. The encyclicals are printed at the private press of the Vatican, an institution founded by him and furnished with all modern improvements. They are first published in The Osservatore Romano, the official daily paper of the Vatiean, and ther. finally translated into Italian and other languages and sent out to the bishops abroad. Leo XIII writes excellent verses, both in Latin and Italian, and likes to see and talk with men of letters as well as to read their works. Two years ago he requested Professor Brunelli of Perugia to buy for him the poetical works of the Abbe Zanella. The request is characteristic, for his holiness insisted upon paying for the book like any one else. - Marion Crawford in Century.

The operator at the telegraph station had orders to open all telegrams addressed to me, and to telephone their contents to me immediately. Suddenly the telephone bell rang, and the children's governess, who answered the phone, came to me and told me that the person at the other end of the wire was saying something about 'shoes,' she couldn't quite make it out. 'Oh,' said I, 'it's my wife's shoemaker, probably. Tell him to let the matter rest until tomorrow.' She delivered the message, but returned shortly to say that the man insisted on talking to me. I went to the telephone. It was the telegraph operator, and the message he was trying to trunsmit to me was: 'When shall I send you my shoes? Johnson R. Camden.' Then I knew that I had been chosen to fill the shoes of that worthy gentleman.'

MUST GET TOGETHER,

If We Are to Have a Base Ball Team This Year-The Outlook Not Bright.

If Maysville is to have a base ball leam this year, local lovers of the sport and all others interested will have to get together pretty soon. The season will open in a month or so, but no steps have yet heen taken towards organizing a club. However, there is plenty time yet, if the partics interested will go to work.

The fine work of last year's team gave Maysville a wide reputation as a base ball town, and the season was a success in that respect, but it was not a success financially so we are informed. However, the expense of fitting up the new park, fencing it &c., amounted to several hundred dollars, and it would not require as much money this season.

Somebody should start the ball.

Dick Smith, the Ironton pitcher, has signed with Keokuk, Iowa.

Portsmouth will have a fine team this season, says the Tribune, and the Times | Maysville this week the first time in five says a fifteen-acre park will most likely be fitted up, the park to include a bicyele race track.

A letter from Heilman, the crack short stop of Maysville's team last season, indicates that he is not satisfied in the Northwest. He is anxious to get back to Maysville, if we are to have a good the hands of D. P. Ort for collection, and team.

of them, he broke forth in great glee:

Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constiputed condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with nellions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness, without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all luiportant, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the gennine article, which is manufactured by the California

Fig Syrup Co. only, and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, then laxatives or other remedies are not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, then one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.
